Dr. Gilbert Frank Gilchrist

Dr. Gilbert Gilchrist was an Alfred Water Negley Professor of Political Science at the University of the South for nearly fifty years. Gilchrist was born in Jackson, Ga., on April 9, 1925, but grew up in Charleston, S.C., where his family had lived for many generations. He was a 1949 graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences. After receiving his doctorate from the Johns Hopkins University in 1954, he attended the London School of Economics for two years of postgraduate study, where he concentrated on seventeenth-century political thought. Gilchrist was listed in Who's Who in the South and Southwest and was a Fulbright Fellow and the recipient of a Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship. He was a member of the American, Southern, and Tennessee political science associations, and he served as the president of the Sewanee chapter of the American Association of University Professors during 1957-58. At Sewanee, he served as the chairman of the political science department for many years, as Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship representative, pre-law advisor, and chairman for the Tonya Public Affairs Internship

Program, which he had successfully funded. He was instrumental in opening the University of the South to women students. During World War II, he served in the U.S. Army's Eighty-seventh Infantry, seeing action in Northern France, the Ardennes and the Rhineland. Gilchrist joined Sewanee's faculty in 1951 as an assistant professor and was promoted to full professor in 1965. At Sewanee, he taught political theory, political parties, the American government, the legislative process, and securities and investments. He grew up in a family that loved music; during his high school days, he played flute in the Charleston Symphony. Theatre was also an avid interest, and he participated in productions at the Dock Street Theatre in Charleston, S.C. At Sewanee, in cooperation with the music department, he directed and participated in many Gilbert and Sullivan productions. Because of his interest in history, politics, art and architecture, he traveled extensively in Europe and Asia. He was also actively involved in the life of the Sewanee community. For twenty years, he successfully ran the Red Cross blood drive in Sewanee. Gilchrist saw a great need in the University's health insurance program and led the way in revamping the system. He advised candidates for Rhodes, Woodrow Wilson, Truman, and Watson scholarships. He served as a member of the Board of Trustees, was on the University's investment committee, and chaired a number of other important committees, among other activities. He also served as advisor to Kappa Sigma fraternity, of which he was a member; the Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science Society; WUTS radio; and Sewanee Arts. Vice-Chancellor Williamson offered his gratitude to Gilchrist, saying, "Gil brought insight, wisdom, and grace to every assignment and every task; I shall miss his wise counsel."

Dr. Anita Shafer Goodstein

Anita Shafer Goodstein was born in 1929 in Brooklyn, N.Y. Goodstein was a scholarship student at Mount Holyoke College, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She received her Ph.D. in history from Cornell University in 1953; she married Marvin E. Goodstein, also a Cornell Ph.D. The couple came to Sewanee in 1955, when Marvin Goodstein was appointed to a post in the economics department. Anita Goodstein began teaching at the University of the South in 1963 and continued to do so until her retirement in 1994. Her contributions to the University were manifold. She was a continuing role model for her students, both female and male, and she developed new academic courses including American Intellectual and Social History, Indians and Blacks in America and Social History, Indians and Blacks in America, and Women in American History. As an advocate of civil rights, she was instrumental in ending segregation in Sewanee and in the Franklin County public schools. In recognition of her contributions to the academic and scholarly community, the University of the South honored her with a Doctor of Civil Law degree in 1994. She was the author of Nashville 1780-1860: From Frontier to City, which was awarded the Tennessee History Book Award in 1989. In documenting women's history in Tennessee, she was a leading organizer of Tennessee's 75th celebration of women's suffrage. She was also the author of numerous articles on women's rights and had just recently completed an article for the Journal of Southern History. One of the happiest moments of her last days was the receipt of news that the Anita S. Goodstein Endowed Lectureship in Women's History was to be a reality.

Dorothy Dietrich Easley

Affectionately known as "Mama Dot," Dorothy Easley served the University from August of 1983 as a matron of first Hunter, then Benedict, dormitories. A native of Chattanooga, Mama Dot served as a radiation therapy technician at Erlanger Hospital for many years before joining the Sewanee family. In this position, she administered treatments to cancer patients, improving the lives of approximately 50 people per day. She also directed and taught within the pre-school/kindergarten program at St. Nicholas Episcopal School in Chattanooga. She was a warm and intelligent woman whose life was devoted to selflessly contributing to the quality of other people's lives.

This book is dedicated to the three people mentioned above, each of whom touched Sewanee with a love for life and a love for learning. Each person will be greatly missed and greatly appreciated for each contribution to the rich and diverse traditions of the University.

DEAR LORD,
SO FAR TODAY, GOD, I'VE DONE ALL RIGHT. I HAVEN'T GOSSIPED, HAVEN'T LOST MY TEMPER, HAVEN'T BEEN GREEDY, GRUMPY, NASTY,
SELFISH, OR OVERWORLDSKET.
I AM REALLY GLAD ABOUT THAT.
BUT, IN A FEW MINUTES
LORD, I'M GOING TO GET OUT OF BED, AND FROM THEN ON
I'M PROBABLY GOING TO NEED
A LOT MORE HELP. THANK YOU!
IN JESUS NAME, AMEN.

These are the days you'll remember.
When May is rushing over you with desire to be part of the miracles you see in every hour.
You'll know it's true that you are blessed and lucky . . .
that you are touched by something that will grow and bloom in you.

These Days, 10,000 Maniacs

Congratulations, Jon!

Class of 1999

Kindergarten was scary, at first but you made it through. The came twelve years of school, and you met each new challenge with grace and joy. You fell in love with Sewanee and made it your home for four more years, and now you are about to embark on another scary beginning. You will do well, as you always have, and you will make the world a better place for having been here. We are very proud of you, and wish you all your heart's desire. We love you very much. Mom and Dad

You've filled our years with happiness and our hearts with pride and love, as there's a special warmth about you that's so wonderfully your own. Your 22 years of life have been happy because of the thoughtfulness you've shown. You are a daughter to be proud of, and we pray that you continue to share your uniqueness as you go out into the world at this special time in your life.

Congratulations!

Love, Mom, Dad and Bob

Yance,

The trip from kindergarten to the domain has been my greatest joy. Thanks for

...Or sharing the ride.

All my love—always,

Mom

-on your own in Connecticut or with friends-

-in a basket
or a gown-

Rebekah,

Wherever you go and whatever you become,
You'll take with you our love, our wish for your happiness, our joy in your success and our pride in the person you are.

We love you,
Mom, Dad and Erin

Congratulations Dale,

Kate,

We can't wait to see where those "arts and crafts," with a measure of Shakespeare, will take you.

Congratulations!

Love,

Mom, Dad and Andy

Your motto was "Play hard, think smart" and you did!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Chad

Congratulations,

Samantha

our nature lover

Love and God Bless,

Mom, Dad, and Sandi

Congratulations Kenny!

To Liz Dooley:
The higher you climb,
The more that you see ...
The less that you know ...
The more that you yearn,
The higher you climb.

The farther you reach,
The more that you touch,
The bolder you feel ...
The less that you need ...
The farther you reach.

(Dan Fogelberg
1985)
